la Parola del Presidente

The last several months have certainly disrupted our usual club activities as we have had to cancel so many of our events due to the coronavirus.

Looking forward, at the May Executive Board meeting, it was unanimously agreed not to reopen the club until September for all indoor activities.

Also discussed was the future of the feast, which is still up in the air. Many thanks to all the feast volunteers who gave their time and efforts to make the feast possible including the setting up and tearing down process.

The Monday and Tuesday bocce players are enjoying the newly refurbished courts with the proper precautions. We are all looking forward to the reopening of the club and for our club life to begin again.

Until then, stay safe and healthy. Ciao, Ron

The Ladies of the Club who made the celebration of 2019 Father's Day a terrific & delicious breakfast!

Unfortunately an encore presentation isn't possible this (Covid-19) year but....
The sentiment is still the same!

2020 Feast Report: Dear Members,

It has been a long & arduous road since the Feast ended in February, but the Executive Board decided to present the results of the 2020 Feast even though there have been delays in determining the balance of the feast account. Checks were written but delays due to the Wuhan virus caused various entrepreneurs to hesitate, for various reasons, to deposit the funds. But we must say reluctantly, that the IACV ended up losing $10,000. Yes, that is correct there was no profit despite the valiant efforts of Charles Mossorof and all of you who worked so hard during the 2020 Feast. Your dedication to our Club is much appreciated.

The Board hopes to see you all sometime in September.

Sincerely, the IACV Executive Board.
